PAGEANTS OF SORROW IN LONDON

Remains of the Late King Edward Taken to Westminster Hall

STREETS WERE JAMMED

Procession Witnessed by 1,250,000 People and Pick-pockets Reaped Rich Harvest.

London, May 17.—London today witnessed the first of the two "pageants of sorrow" marking the passage of the late King Edward from the bier to the grave, when his body was removed from the throne room of Buckingham Palace to Westminster Hall, where for two days it will publicly lie in state.

Today's procession lasted only half an hour, beginning at 11:30 and ending at noon, but in that brief period one of the greatest crowds that ever jammed a section of London witnessed a wonderful scene of mingled pomp and gloom.

The route, one mile in length, was lined by 11,500 soldiers, who stood so close together as almost to touch shoulders. With erect figures and solemn mien they stood at present arms as the gun carriage bearing the coffin of the royal dead passed slowly by.

Today's procession lacked the glitter of royalty that will mark the funeral procession on Friday, as aside from King George and the members of the British royal households, few of the visiting monarchs participated in the exercises.

It was originally intended for all of the royalties and untitled representatives to take part in today's procession, but this plan was finally abandoned, owing to the fact that several of these have not yet arrived. Colonel Roosevelt, the American ambassador to the funeral, did not participate in today's ceremonies.

The procession was made up of the army headquarters staff, the army council, board of admirals, field marshals and admirals, King George and the other members of the royal household. All were afoot except the queen mother, widow of the late king, who rode in the first carriage and was accompanied by her sister, the dowager empress of Russia, the queen mother's sister and the princess royal.

Queen Mary rode in the second carriage. She had with her the Princess Mary and Prince Henry.

King George was accompanied by the Duke of Cornwall, the heir apparent, and two other princes. The First Life Guards, in scarlet uniforms, served as an escort for the king.

As the procession moved slowly toward Westminster Hall, massed bands played "Dirges from Beethoven and Chopin," which were broken by the booming of the minute guns in Hyde Park and the tolling of "Big Ben," the great bell in the clock tower of the House of Parliament, which was tolled for the first time in history. The minute guns fired 68 salutes, one for each year of the dead king's life. The procession moved along the Mall, past the Horse Guards' parade, Whitehall and Parliament street. At the start from the palace the bands played Beethoven's "Funeral March," the sad strains of which were reflected somewhat when the cortege reached Marlborough gate, where the Scots Guard piped struck up the "Lament."

Chopin's "Funeral March" and the dead march from "Satan" were next played by the military bands and pipers.

One of the impressive features of the procession was the presence on the gun carriage of four giant Grenadier Guards, the pick of the king's regiment of Grenadiers. The coffin was draped in the royal standard.

Arriving at historic Westminster Hall, the coffin was borne to a magnificent catafalque. Members of the house of lords and the house of commons were awaiting the body at Westminster Hall. As soon as it had been placed on the catafalque, the Archbishop of Canterbury, assisted by Canon Whitmore, conducted a short service, which was made wonderfully impressive by the singing of the choir of Westminster Abbey, augmented by the choir from the royal chapel.

The service at Westminster Hall did not end until 1 o'clock, and from then until 4 o'clock the body lay in state to those who had been invited by members of parliament to view it. At 4 o'clock the coffin lying in state began and immediately a great throng began a ceaseless tread through the ancient corridors.

Estimates of the number of people who witnessed today's procession vary greatly and run as high as 1,250,000. Despite the efforts of hun-

COMET IS RUSHING TO EARTH

Scientists Claim Tail Will Sideswipe Earth Tomorrow Evening

MAY BE ILLUMINATION

No Danger Apprehended and Halley's Visitor Will Not Affect Us in Any Way.

Washington, May 17.—About seven million miles off into space Halley's comet is performing all sorts of funny tumbling today and is hurrying toward old Mother Earth at the rate of some forty miles a second. Out at the naval observatory in the midst of telescopes, spectroscopes and other queer looking instruments, Prof. Asaph Hall and his corps of scientists spent several hours with the comet this morning. According to Prof. Hall the tail of the comet will sideswipe the earth tomorrow evening and we will be floundering about in it the better part of Wednesday night. But all the sky sharps here agree that there is no cause for apprehension. The noxious vapors of the tail, if it possesses any, will be unable to penetrate the earth's heavy wrapping of atmosphere and beyond a few aerial fire works and some illumination of the sky, the comet will slide by without extraordinary incident.

According to the observers at the naval observatory, the caudal appendage of the comet this morning stretched for some 52 or 53 degrees across the heavenly vault, or about 25,000,000 miles. As the scientists watched, the tail was first visible. A fan-shaped ray of light climbed up over the horizon shortly after 3 o'clock, this morning brilliant and expanding as it arose until when it circles easily into a sort of rainbow against the dark sky, the flaming ball that marks the head and body of the heavenly wanderer hove into sight.

According to today's observations, it is estimated that the earth will have to pass through several million miles of the comet's tail, but the composition of the tail, from spectroscopic reading has been determined to be next thing to vacuum. The sky sharps estimate that it contains less than a single molecule or particle of solid matter to the cubic yard. That is why they are not worrying about the contact of the tail with the earth.

TRUTH ABOUT HALLEY'S COMET.
(Written for the United Press by Prof. Harold Jacoby, Rutherford Professor of Astronomy at Columbia University.)
New York, May 17.—Will Halley's night? I think not. Comets have struck this earth in the past and will continue to hit it in the future. In the museum of natural history in New York City there is a meteor weighing 27 1/2 tons. There may be several such chips in the head of Halley's comet. And if the head of the celestial visitor struck the earth we would have some local disturbance at least.

The head of Halley's comet will not come nearer to our planet than by about 140,000 miles. Astronomers disagree on the figures but not on the facts. However, the tail of Halley's comet may be long enough to bridge the interval between the head of the comet and the earth. If so, and astronomers feel fairly sure that the tail is long enough to do so, the earth will pass through the tail of the comet.

"We know that the head of the comet is solid. We also know that its tail is less dense than the air in the best vacuum we can make with a mercury air pump. This is thinner than thin. The molecules will be separated each by several cubic feet. So the timid may take new hope. This earth of ours will continue to do business at the old stand.

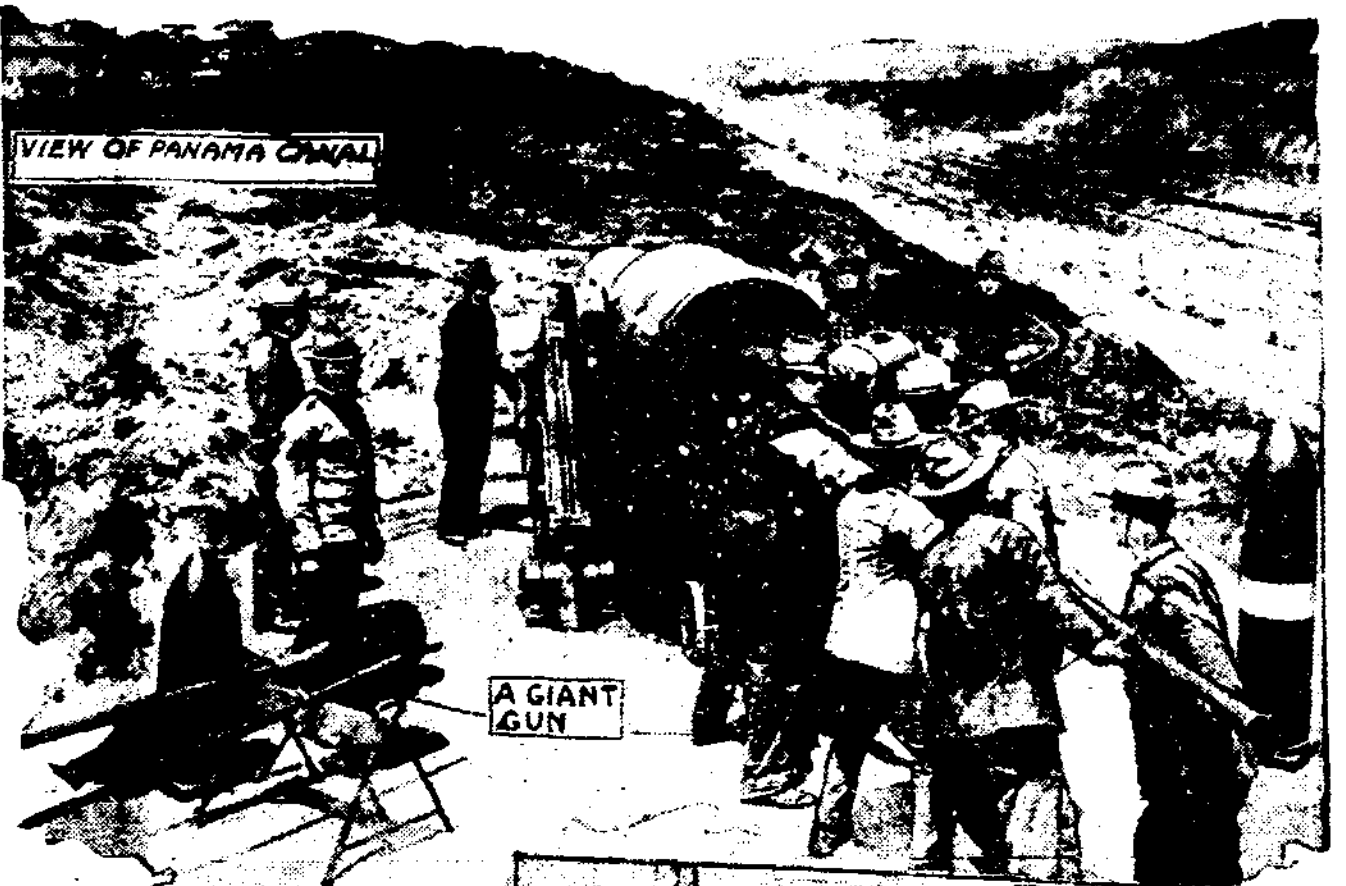

In ancient days the mass of the people attributed strange things to the presence of Halley's comet. For example, they would have said Halley's comet caused the death of King Edward. Of course such fallacies and the fear that the comet will put an end to the earth are no longer held by the people.

COMMON PEOPLE HAVING FUN OVER THE COMET.
New York, May 17.—The common people are having much fun over the distinguished visitor.

The "comet" of the night of Broadway was the comet of the night of the comet. The comet of the night of the comet was the comet of the night of the comet. The comet of the night of the comet was the comet of the night of the comet.

CLUBMAN COMMITTED SUICIDE

Hurled Self From 13th Floor of Chicago Chamber of Commerce

BODY A SHAPELESS MASS

Was Famous Tennis Player and President of Ideal Electric Automobile Company.

Chicago, May 17.—John Albert Ryerson, aged 41, member of one of the most prominent families in Chicago, committed suicide last evening by hurling himself from the thirteenth floor of the Chamber of Commerce to the marble floor below, being crushed to a shapeless mass by the terrible impact.

Fortunately the corridor was comparatively empty at the time and no other person was endangered.

Ryerson was famous as a tennis player. He was a member of the most exclusive clubs and president of the Ideal Electric Automobile Co. He married a daughter of Rev. Dr. James K. Stone, the latter being rector of St. James Episcopal church, the largest sanctuary of that denomination in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Ryerson moved in the most exclusive society circles. They had one child, 1 1/2 years old, and were expecting another next month.

Mrs. Ryerson is prostrated and in a very serious condition as a result of the tragedy.

The only reason that can be assigned for the tragedy is worry over financial matters. Mr. Ryerson became president of the automobile manufacturing concern last fall. Its factory is running night and day, but he seemed perplexed by the finances of the concern.

There were some theories that he did not commit suicide, but became dizzy looking over the railing in the Chamber of Commerce and threw himself over under the impulse that sometimes attacks persons under similar circumstances.

This is the third tragedy of the same kind in the building. The first victim shot himself as he leaped over the balcony. The second, a year or so ago, sped down the stairs and fell upon a heavy cast iron steam radiator, smashing it to pieces. Mr. Ryerson fell upon the marble floor, crushing it to powder.

Dr. and Mrs. Stone, parents of Mrs. Ryerson, are in Europe. Other relatives said they had seen and talked with Ryerson shortly after noon and that he was complaining about slow collections.

TWELVE PEOPLE KILLED IN AN EXPLOSION AT CANTON

CANTON, May 17.—A boiler at the American Sheet and Tin Plate company's plant blew up at 2 o'clock today, shaking the south end of the town, and wrecking the plant. Twelve dead bodies have already been taken from the ruins and the injured will probably reach 25.

The entire plant is in flames. No cause for the explosion is known. Arms and legs of men are scattered about the plant, and the dead bodies are so horribly mutilated that they can never be identified. The body of one man was hurled with such force that it broke through the shingle roof of a house 50 yards away.

KERBY TELLS HIS STORY ON THE WITNESS STAND

Washington, May 17.—Frederick Kerby took the stand in the Ballinger investigation today. In a cool, clean cut manner, and in spite of interruptions and insulting questions from Ballinger's attorneys and members of the committee, he told his story of how he came to expose the inside history of the Tillamook. Applause from the spectators greeted many of Kerby's statements.

Asked by Senator Sutherland why he did not talk over with Ballinger the advisability of making public the Lawler memorandum, he said:

"I knew better than that I had the Gladie case from him and I remembered hearing something about such killing." There were several clashes between the two men, Kerby to tell his story in his own way, and Republican members, who were in the majority, who were in the majority.

AMUSEMENTS

ORPHEUM THEATRE.

An excellent bill is holding forth at the Orpheum this week. The audiences at the Monday performances were greatly pleased and as a consequence Manager Fenberg is wearing a broader smile with his regulation carnation.

The first act on the program is a clever team, Mitchell & Willard, and their comedy singing and talking is a great laugh getter. Their travesty work is new and up-to-date and the song hits were all well received.

Jimmie Wall is the same old Jimmie, and anyone who has ever heard him before will always make an effort to go again. His "stuff" is bright and catchy, and his songs are sung as only Jimmie Wall can sing them. The audience kept him busy responding to the many encores, but the black-faced comedian was equal to the occasion, and always had one a little better than the other.

The Del Godfrey trio, in a singing and dancing specialty, are one of the hits of a most excellent bill. Their dancing is above the ordinary, but the singing of one of the trio, in a boy impersonation, brings down the house.

Lukens' Bears is an animal act that is exceptionally clever, and is not to be classed with those which have been seen here on previous occasions. There are seven really clever woolly bears, and their "turns" are more than interesting.

Don't forget the "Country Store" next Thursday evening. Manager Fenberg is going to give away part of a grocery, so be there and get in on some of the good things.

KEITH VAUDEVILLE

AT AUDITORIUM

The opening bill of Keith vaudeville at the Auditorium theatre, composed of five acts, is now complete with the exception of one act.

The opening will be Thursday, the matinee beginning at 2:30, and the evening performance at 7:30, and at the conclusion of the first show the matinee will begin at once. The headliners are Milton and Dolly Nobles, the famous exponents of refined comedy, presenting "Why Walker Reformed," Milton and Dolly Nobles were among the first dramatic stars of national reputation to enter the new field of vaudeville. They had a large following in all the principal cities, and at once drew thousands of people who had never before seen a vaudeville show. They have continued in the field, and aside from being an actor of ability, Mr. Noble is also a composer and constructor of plays. The greatest of all tight wire walkers are Adair and Dahn, who accomplish feats that are not short of marvelous. Their act has many new and attractive features.

Arthur Browning is a peer in the art of entertaining, and his eccentric comedy work will be a big thing on the bill.

One of the most attractive and interesting musical acts presented is that of Harlan and Rollison, the European comedy instrumentalists, who feature their act with their famed concertina playing. The selected musical program is varied and marks them as artists of the classical as well as the popular airs. The fifth act has not been announced as yet, but will no doubt be comparatively suited to the rest of the acts offered. Motion pictures will conclude the show and during the performance the Auditorium orchestra will furnish the music.

MR. LEWIS JONES
ACCEPTS POSITION

Mr. Lewis Jones, who for the past few seasons has been connected with some of the largest productions that have gone out of New York City, will take charge of the stage at the Auditorium. With the experience that Mr. Jones has had in work of this kind, it is safe to state that with him in control, the acts will be properly staged, and this means much to vaudeville attractions.

PAINS IN THE BACK AND LIMBS

A Michigan Man Tells How the Treatment With Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Cured Him.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have made so many remarkable cures in serious cases that people are liable to overlook their value as a tonic for the blood and nerves in debility and general run-down conditions.

That such conditions are the cause of much misery and unhappiness is fully known to those who suffer from them, and the need of curing them is as vital as is relief from diseases with higher sounding names. We commend the following statement to those who suffer from any form of debility resulting from weak, thin blood or shattered nerves.

Mr. G. A. Randall, a farmer, of Elsie, Mich., says:

"I suffered from general debility for several years and at different times was so sick that I had to remain in bed. My trouble was brought on by overwork and neglect of my health. Food did not digest but fermented in my stomach causing gas. My bowels were very irregular, my liver torpid and my face and the whites of my eyes were yellow. Often a blur would come before my eyes and everything would turn black. I had hard pains in my back, my legs ached a great deal, were swollen and seemed to play out entirely."

"I doctored faithfully for several months but received no help. My mother advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and after taking a few boxes I felt much better. I gradually grew stronger and was entirely cured."

The tonic action of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is direct because they make new blood which carries health and strength to every part of the body. This pure, new blood tones up the weak stomach, strengthens the exhausted nerves and enables every part of the body to perform its work.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are recommended whenever a tonic for the blood and nerves is needed. They have cured anemia, chlorosis, rheumatism, stomach trouble, and the after-effects of the grip and fevers. The tonic treatment with these pills is fully described in our diet booklet, and "Diseases of the Blood," which will be sent free upon request.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

MISS MARION KERBY

IN NEW PLAY

Henry B. Harris has announced that he has engaged Marion Kerby, who during the past season played Annie Jeffries in "The Third Degree" to originate a prominent part in Edgar Selwyn's new play, "The Country Boy," which will have its premier in New York early in September.

Miss Kerby is the sister of Elliott Kerby of this city, and those who saw her in the role of Annie Jeffries at the Auditorium theatre late this season can easily understand why Mr. Harris has selected her as one of the original cast for the new play which is expectantly awaited by New York.

The soothing spray of Ely's Liquid Cream Balm, used in an atomizer, is an unspeakable relief to sufferers from Catarrh. Some of them describe it as a Godsend, and no wonder. The thick, foul discharge is dislodged, and the patient breathes freely, perhaps for the first time in weeks. Liquid Cream Balm contains all the healing, purifying elements of the solid form, and it never fails to satisfy. Sold by all druggists for 75c., including spraying tube, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren St., New York.

Long, pastor of the German Reformed church of Perry county. He was united in marriage to Mary Patton, March 10, 1875. No children were born to this union. They spent the greater part of their married life on their farm near Highwater. He was a considerate, loving, kind and faithful husband. Besides his bereaved wife he leaves four brothers and one sister and a host of relatives and friends to mourn his death. Years ago he expressed firm faith in his Creator and that he would meet the loved ones gone before. The funeral was conducted by his friend and pastor, Rev. David Gillispie.

DEATH OF AN INFANT.

Karrie Bramlage, the 3-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Bramlage, of 542 Serooc avenue died at the home Monday morning at 8:30 o'clock, after a short illness of lung fever.

FUNERAL OF CEPHAS HARTER.

The funeral services over the remains of Cephas Harter, late superintendent of the Licking county infirmary, were held in the United Brethren church in Jacktown, on Monday afternoon, conducted by the Rev. R. A. Hitt, presiding elder of the Southern Conference of the United Brethren movement in Ohio. The funeral was one of the largest ever held in Licking county, and it is estimated that 1000 strangers were in Jacktown and called to pay their last respects to the deceased. The chairs from the Licking township house were taken to the lawn of the church to provide as far as possible for the seating of the large crowd during the services. An impressive sermon was preached by the Rev. Mr. Hitt, and the remains found their last resting place in Fairmount cemetery.

ATTENTION, G. A. R.

The funeral of Comrade Brice Taylor will be held Wednesday at 2 o'clock, at his late home, 59 Cedar street. The comrades will meet at the corner of West Main and Cedar streets at 1:30 o'clock. By order of Rufus Putnam, Commander Lemert Post.

Lion Fondles a Child.

In Pittsburg a savage lion fondled the hand that a child thrust into his cage. Danger to a child is sometimes great when least regarded. Often it comes through Colds, Croup, and Whooping Cough. They slay thousands that Dr. King's New Discovery could have saved. "A few doses cured our baby of a bad case of croup," writes Mrs. George B. Davis, of Flat Rock, N. C. "We always give it to him when he takes cold. It's a wonderful medicine for babies." Best for Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Asthma, Hemorrhages, Weak Lungs, 50c., $1.00 Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by F. D. Hall.

Daddy's Bedtime Story—

How Bunny Lost His Tail

The Latest Style From Paris

"NOW, lamblins," said daddy as Jack and Evelyn got comfortably settled on his lap for their bedtime story, "I am going to tell you tonight about the mischievous little rabbit and how he lost his tail."

"Did poor Bunny cry, daddy, when he lost it?" asked Evelyn.

"Deed he did, dear. But, most of all, it hurt his pride, for he was very very proud of it. And now for our tale about the tail that was lost."

"Well, once upon a time years and years ago there was a little rabbit with such a pretty pink nose and such bright black eyes that all the other rabbits were awfully jealous of his good looks. But especially was he handsome because of his long, bushy tail, the longest and bushiest in all Rabbitville."

"Bunny used to take good care of himself, too, and, unlike some little folks I know, never ate too much candy or too many jam tarts or too many bananas, so that he was never sick and made to take bitter medicine. He always felt so jolly and well that he couldn't help playing tricks on the others. That was what cost him his tail."

"One day while chasing a fat mouse through the woods he came to an old farmer taking a nap under a tree, and, as usual, he had rather play tricks than eat. So he let the little fat mouse go, softly crept up through the tall grass and with his long, bushy tail began to tickle the old man's nose. In a moment or two the farmer opened one eye and began to sneeze and scold the flax that he thought was bothering him."

"This amused Bunny, and every time the farmer closed his eyes and began to snore the bushy tail would tickle his nose again, and he would sit up and wave his hands and slap his face and 'shoo' the flies. But the game was carried too far. At last the man saw the laughing Bunny and, waiting his chance, caught him by the tail, which he cut off with his jackknife."

"Poor, frightened little Bunny was then let go, and he hurried home, heart-broken. When the other rabbits saw him they laughed and jeered and called him 'Bobtail,' and for a whole week he would not leave his hole in the ground."

"Did he die of a broken heart, daddy?" asked Jack sympathetically.

"Not he, dear. Bunny was a wise little chap, and when he did come out and was called 'Bobtail' again he only held his head high and said that it was the latest style from Paris. Then all the other rabbits, not to be behind the style and in order that they might keep up the credit of the Bunny tribe, cut off their tails, too, and from that time on no rabbit that did not have its tail short had any standing in the rabbit family. So you see that people are not the only ones who have fashions."

The kiddies scrooged around daddy's knees, and Evelyn said that the bunnies were lucky, because they didn't have to change their styles.

ECZEMA—A GERM DISEASE CAN NOW BE CURED.

The Medical profession is all agreed that ECZEMA is a germ disease, but the thing that has baffled them is to find some remedy that will get to the germs and destroy them.

Zemo, the clean, external treatment has solved this difficulty by drawing the germs to the surface of the skin and destroying the germ life that causes the diseases. The whole method of treatment and cure by ZEMO is explained in an interesting book on the subject, issued by the makers of ZEMO. It tells how to cure yourself at home of Eczema, Blackheads, Pimples, Dandruff, and all diseases of the skin and scalp. Call at T. J. Evans' Drug Store for Booklet and learn more about this clean, simple remedy that is now recognized the standard treatment for all diseases of the skin and scalp.

REMINISCENCE OF THE CIVIL WAR

Some three years ago when Mr. E. R. Evans of this city, a veteran of the civil war, was in the South he visited Andersonville cemetery. While there the superintendent told him about a gentleman who had called on him late one afternoon in reference to the grave of his brother. He said that he had visited nearly all the military cemeteries in the south and had failed to find it, and this was about his last resort. The superintendent asked him the name of his brother and when the stranger mentioned it immediately recognized it as the name of one of the six raiders and murderers that was hung in the pen while Mr. Evans was there. The superintendent told him that his brother was buried there and he seemed very glad that he had at last succeeded in discovering where his brother was buried. He wanted the superintendent to show him the grave, saying that he would like to take the remains back to the old home. The superintendent did not feel equal to the occasion and put him off. The next morning the superintendent asked the foreman to show the gentleman the grave and he started out to do so but his heart nearly failed him before they arrived at the grave. The stranger wanted to know why the six soldiers were buried there by themselves and the foreman was compelled to tell him all the circumstances connected with their deaths. The poor man sat down on the ground and cried like a little child, saying that he had hunted all over the country for the grave of his brother with the intention of taking the remains home with him, but that under the circumstances he thought that he had better leave them where they were, and he did so.

BIG INCREASE IS GIVEN B. AND O. S. W. RAILWAY EMPLOYEES

Cincinnati, May 17.—An agreement involving increases ranging from 10 per cent to 22 per cent was signed yesterday afternoon, closing negotiations which have been in progress since January 20. The agreement, which includes a working scale to be effective for two years, was signed by General Manager C. C. E. Bent and General Superintendent W. H. Brinson on behalf of the B. and O. S. W., and W. M. Clark, vice president of the Order of Railway Conductors. T. R. Dodge, vice president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, J. T. DeFrates and H. F. Smith, chairman of the Conductors' and Trainmen's committees, respectively. It grants practically everything that was asked, reducing the working day from 12 to 10 hours and increasing wages from 10 per cent to 22 per cent, and applies to all divisions of the B. and O. S. W. The two committees that have carried on the negotiations were composed as follows: Conductors, J. T. DeFrates, W. A. Hall, A. W. Irwin, E. F. Voloney, H. H. Ryan, F. A. Gilbert, H. A. Smith, T. E. Barnes, Trainmen, T. F. Smith, H. E. Frazer, John Redman, Charles Fox, C. C. Shaw, Harry Bakley, F. W. Greenwood, Wm. Giskler, Robert Paisley, Joseph Davis. Members of these committees left last night for their respective homes, all satisfied at the outcome. Chairman DeFrates and Smith will be in the city for a day or two, discussing upon them the heads of their respective organizations and the membership of the agreement. ### HONORS TO DENISON'S PRESIDENT

Granville, May 17.—The climax was reached Monday night in the wonderful expression of joy of the people of Granville at the decision of Dr. Hunt, president of Denison university, to remain at the head of the institution which he has done so much for, and in which he has accomplished such great results since he has been at the helm. As the readers of the Advocate are aware, Dr. Hunt has turned down one of the grandest positions in the gift of the Baptist church of the secretary to the National Baptist Foreign Missionary Union, with headquarters in Boston, Mass. As everyone can readily realize, it was a hard matter for Dr. Hunt to throw over an opportunity like this, an opportunity for doing so much good but he soon made up his mind that there was no place like Denison for him, and at Denison he would stay.

The demonstration made by the students of Denison and Shepardson college and the citizens of the village on Monday morning on his return from Chicago was certainly calculated to stir the blood and warm the heart of the good Doctor at this manifestation of love and esteem on the part of those under him and of the people of the village. But this expression of good will and hearty welcome home was nothing compared to the reception given him in the Opera House Monday evening. The fact that a public reception was to be tendered Dr. Hunt was generally known and at 8 o'clock a large audience composed of the people of the village and the students of the university assembled in the commodious hall.

The jubilation opened with the singing of a beautiful song by the young ladies of Shepardson college, which was followed by the college yell by the students, and "What's the matter with Proctor?" "He's all right," resounded throughout the hall.

Mayor Barnes, as chairman of the evening, in a happy speech explained the nature of the meeting and after congratulating Dr. Hunt on behalf of himself and the people of the village as well as the students of the university on his decision to remain at the head of Denison university introduced the speakers of the evening.

Speeches of a most congratulatory nature were then made by Dr. Ramsey, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal church; Prof. Frank Conway of the faculty of Denison university; Dr. John Newell, pastor of the Presbyterian church; Prof. W. H. Johnson of the faculty of Denison university; Dr. C. J. Baldwin, pastor of the Baptist church.

To all the complimentary remarks that had been made, Dr. Hunt made a most fitting response, assuring one and all that he deeply appreciated the expression of good will towards him, and pledging his best efforts to Denison and Granville in the future as in the past.

Dr. Hunt has been perhaps the most distinguished and popular president that Denison university has ever had.

GRANVILLE

Granville, O., May 17.—One of the prettiest home weddings that has taken place in Granville for some time was that on Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Schley, on West Broadway, when their only daughter, Miss Mildred Marie Schley, was united in marriage to Mr. Thomas Cleven Messick, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Messick of Hebron, O. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride in the presence of a number of the friends of the contracting parties by Dr. Ramsey, rector of St. Luke's Episcopal church. At the conclusion of the ceremony congratulations were showered on the happy couple, the bride and groom left for a short wedding trip through the east. On their return they will go to house-keeping in Newark, where they will make their future home. The young people who are just entering on their new life, are well known throughout the county and they have the best wishes of all their friends.

HEALTH BOARD HAS ISSUED NEW ORDERS

The board of health has issued warning to the people of Newark that all cases of chicken pox must be reported, and in a family where a child is ill of the disease, other children from the family will be allowed to attend school.

This is simply a precautionary measure, for while chicken pox itself is not particularly dangerous, yet the start of the disease is similar to smallpox and this disease must be avoided. The state health report for the 13th of May shows that in 27 counties in the state smallpox was reported, and the local health department wishes to prevent this disease and for that reason other precautions must be taken with chicken pox. The sanitary policeman was out Tuesday morning picking up chicken pox signs on houses from which the disease had been reported.

THE QUEST FOR BEAUTY

(BY MADAME MADELENE MARCEL)

Mrs. T. T. The very best hair tonic that I know of is made by mixing half a pint of water with half a pint of alcohol, then adding one ounce of betanin. I am sure this will stop your hair falling out and promote its growth. You can get the betanin from any drugstore in one ounce bottles, and this will make a full pint of hair tonic.

Miss L. M.: I wouldn't advise you to use the electric needle for removing superfluous hair unless you are sure the operator is an expert. You can easily remove the hairs yourself by mixing a little detol powder with enough warm water to make a paste. Smear over the hairs to be removed, leave on for a few minutes, then scrape off and the hairs will come off with the paste. You can get this detol from any first class drug store.

Miss Jennie K.: Wrinkles are caused by an impoverished condition of the skin. The skin needs food as well as clothing else. The best way to keep the skin is by massaging with a good cream. The very best I know of is made by beating a pint of water to boiling point, then add three ounces of cerol and stir constantly until cool. Massage morning and night with this and your wrinkles will soon disappear.

Anna H.: Those yellow spots on your face are probably caused by a bad stomach and inactive liver. Take a tablespoonful of oil of every night and morning for three weeks, and have your druggist fill this prescription: Compound tincture of cinchona, one ounce; proserne compound, one ounce; sherry wine, half a pint. Take a teaspoonful before meals and at bedtime. This will set your stomach right and the oil will start your liver to action.

Mrs. H. H.: I know just how you feel. There is nothing so uncomfortable as third, aching, tender, sweaty feet. We don't give our feet the attention they need. I know if you will get an ounce bottle of bore lister from your druggist, dissolve this in one and one half pints of boiling water, then add half a pint of alcohol. Now every night put a couple of tablecloths in this solution into a basin of water and bathe the feet, you'll be surprised at the instant relief you will get.

Mrs. A. E. H.: Do not use those so-called hair dippers on your hair.

CONSCIENCE STRICKEN.

Several days ago Mr. Charles I. Jones, a well known resident of the Welsh Hills, received the following note, accompanied by a one dollar bill, from an unknown party, who was evidently conscience stricken:

"I send the dollar to you for sum nuts I gathered on your place."
Mr. Jones has no idea who the writer is, but says that he is glad to know that the person who took his nuts is honest.
